

Teaching schedule for Book Two Continuing Bridge

Lesson Number	Lesson Title
	What should I know already?
1	Revision of the uncontested auction
2	Revision of overcalls
3	Duplicate tactics and protective bidding
	Planning the play
4	SWOT examples
5	SWOT examples
	Slam Bidding
6	Review of what we know, use of Blackwood
7	Cue Bidding
	Defensive techniques
8	3 rd hand play, signalling and unblocking
9	2 nd hand play; lead through strength; lead partner's suit
10	The lead of a king against a no trump contract
	Competitive Bidding
11	The wider use of takeout doubles
12	Defence to an opponent's 1NT opening bid
	Defender's Play
13	Revision of signals
14	Planning the Defence
15	Defeating trump contracts
16	Using trumps
	Declarer Play
17	The danger hand
18	Counting by declarer
	Tidying Up and Bending the Rules
19	Showing shape
20	Fourth Suit Forcing
21	Bending the Rules
22	Losing Trick Count
	New gadgets† – Standard English Modern Acol
23	Supporting partner – pre-emptive, splinter and pudding raises after a 1♥ / 1♠ opening
24	Red suit transfers
25	Weak twos in diamonds, hearts and spades
26	The Landy defence to a 1NT opening bid

† Standard English is defined at two levels – the foundation level and a more advanced level called Standard English Modern Acol. The 'New gadgets' chapter introduces four of the most useful and widely used conventions in Standard English Modern Acol.